

INTERNET:

-
-
-
-
1. Author if known, last name first .
(Usually somewhere on first page)
  2. "Title of article."
  3. Date of document or download,
(Usually somewhere on first page)
  4. URL address.

Bradshaw, Gary S. "Wilbur and Orville Wright." Oct. 1996,
<http://www.wam.umd.edu/~srwright/WrBr/Wrights.html>.

Ex) with author

"Viking Heritage." 2002, <http://viking.hgo.se>.

Ex) without author

Try to find as much information as possible about an Internet document in order to determine whether it is accurate or not. It is especially important to try to find out about the author of an Internet document, whether a person, organization or institution.